Dedication

To our parents, and the parents of all Serra students, past and future, who make innumerable sacrifices, providing us, their sons and daughters, with the opportunities of a Catholic education, we, the Associated Student Body of Serra Catholic High School, sincerely dedicate this '63 Serran. The parents of Serra's students have contributed more to Serra than any of us can fully realize. With this in mind, we are proud to publicly acknowledge this indebtedness to their guidance, constant care and selfless devotion.

ADVENTURE ZOO

Foreword

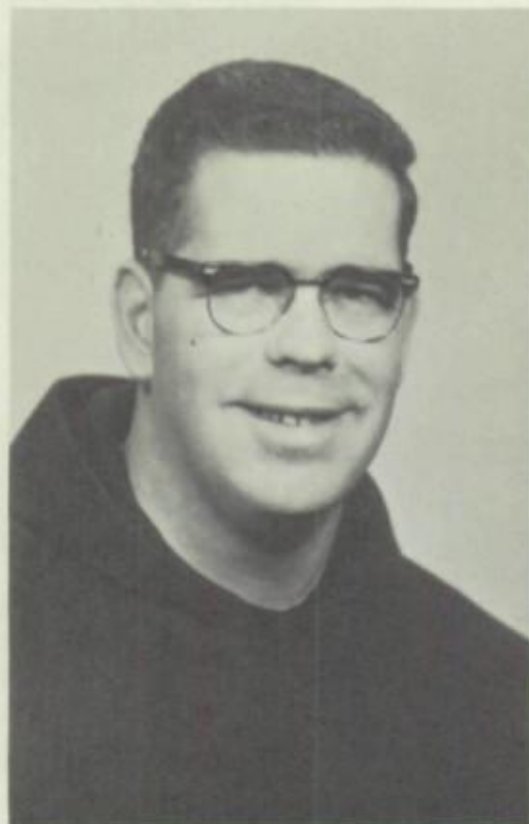

Each Yearbook has special significance to the departing seniors. It is YOUR book! In the years to come you will be taking this book from the shelf or removing it from a box of "stuff" called miscellaneous. As each page is turned memories are recalled. You will be mindful of the achievements, the failures, the great events, the seemingly endless routine of the daily schedule, the "closest" friend you ever had, the association with other class and school members: - an excellent book of memories caught forever on each page.

Yet its importance does not lie with just bare memories; pages account for lives which have been lived in time, brief but significant, as each day drew one nearer to adulthood. Mistakes had been made and in paging back now, many of them are recalled and you say: 'Why did I ever do that!' 'How neglectful I was to take things so lightly.' 'If I had to do it all over again, what a change there would be.' Don't kid yourself, placed back in school with the same age, same knowledge, same experience, same maturity as you had in your high school days, you would be doing the same things over again.

But what you see in these pages has taught you to learn and to profit for the future. Herein is the greatness of this book. Its importance is bound up with you - a senior graduate. What you make of it will add to your stature and your success.

In the past eight years since Serra was established in Salem, the faculty has grown from six to twenty-one. The staff is made up of Franciscan priests and sisters, diocesan priests, and lay men and women. Besides their dedication to their teaching careers, most of the faculty are club moderators and student advisors. For a job well done, we say "Thank-you."

Faculty Activities

Father John and Mrs. Burger looking for something important in their "efficiently" run office.

Father Eugene enjoying T. V. as Father Godfrey catches up on some of the sleep he loses worrying about the freshman boys.

Mrs. Smith watches an assembly from the vantage point of the nearest exit.

Mr. Gieber, Father Godfrey, and Mr. Grosjacques enjoy an assembly just before the Central game.

Height has a psychological advantage and Father Godfrey is out to prove it with his trusty stool.

Faculty Activities

Sister Aquina, Sister Carina, Sister Francis and Sister Jacqueline join together in "perfect" harmony for a little community recreation.

Father Lester all set for a tough day teaching American Problems to the senior boys.

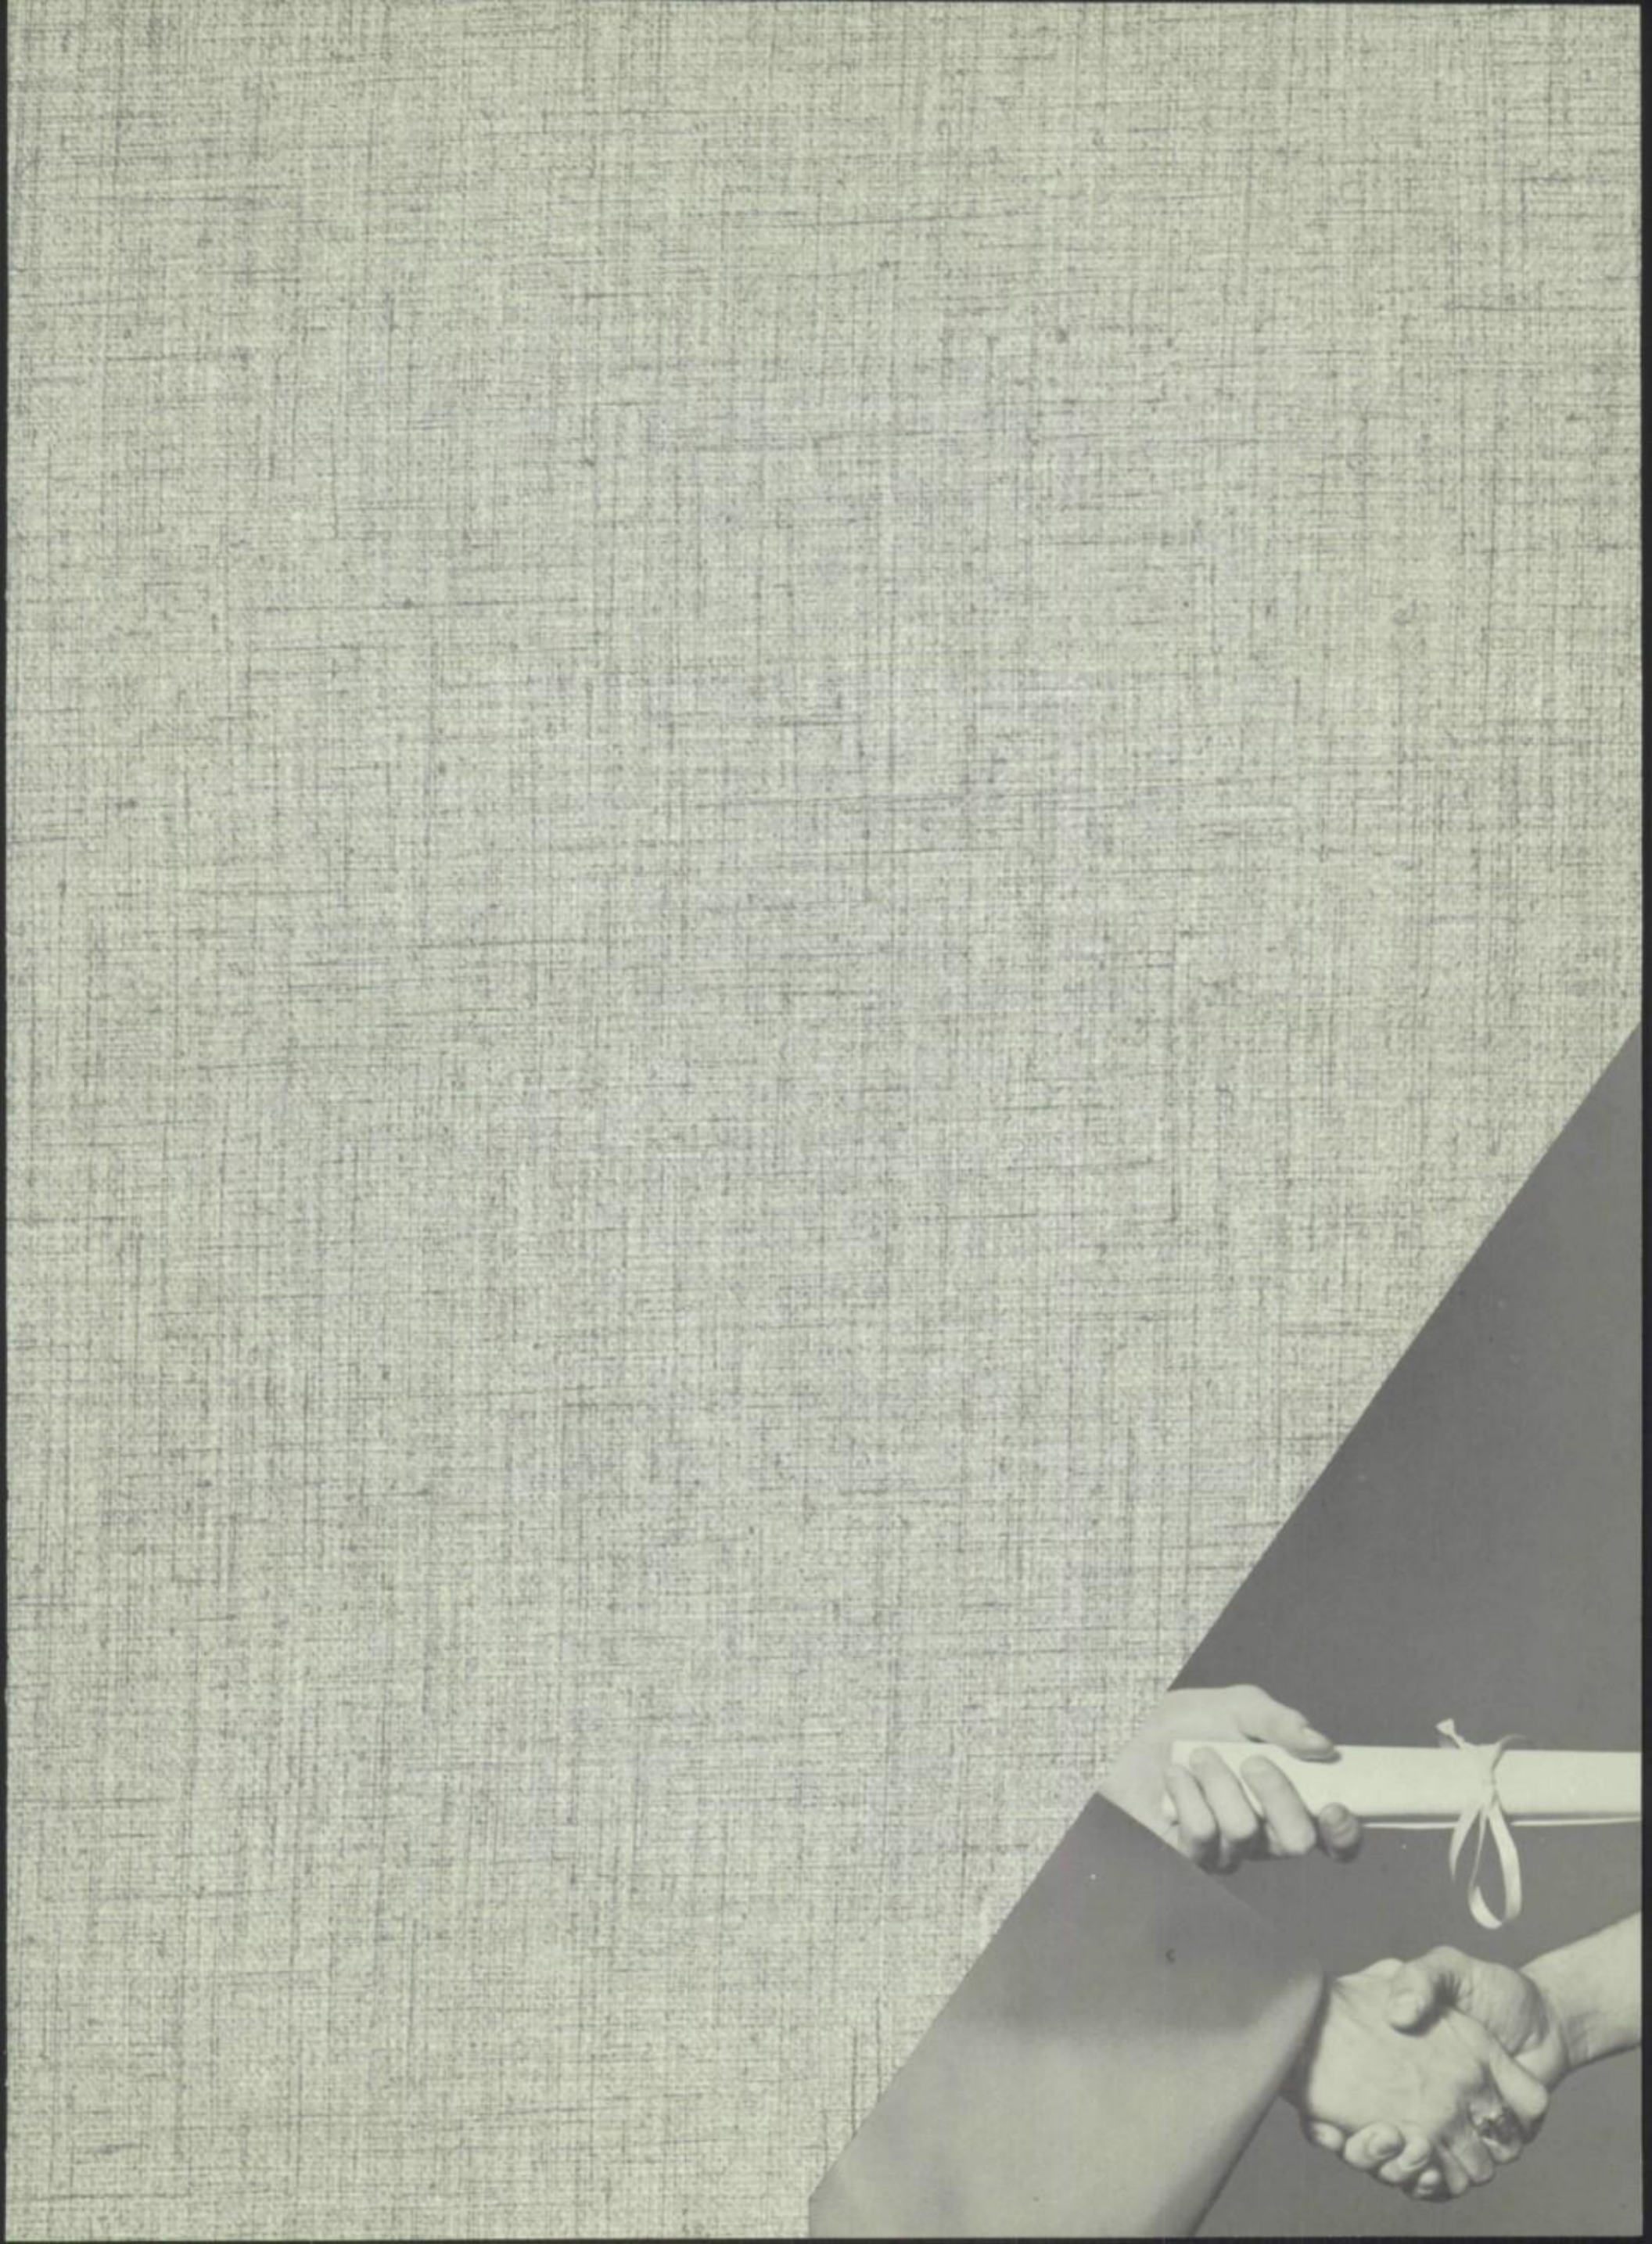

Father John plays logger as he helps clean up the friary after the Columbus Day storm.

Mr. Kuper tells Father John that he too can learn to drive a tractor and proceeds to give him lesson number one.

The senior class was governed this year by Jim Steinfeld, vice-president; Pam Gordon, secretary; Pat Klampe, president; and Tony DeSantis, treasurer.

Seniors

The graduating seniors might be called the last of the "old-timers." Entering when Serra was only five years old, they have been a part of her growth and change. They have watched the massive gym rise from a bare foundation to its present usable form; they have seen the gradual addition of parking lots and roads and scoreboards and bleachers. They have seen the student body grow around them to its present total of 365. In a sense, they have been part of Serra's "coming of age."

Their chapter of Serra history began in 1959 when they entered with a class of 96, at that time Serra's largest. "Active" would best describe their four years at Serra. The usual catalog of assemblies, dances, proms, was climaxed in their senior year when they took able charge of all the school's major activities. They also initiated the May Day and Graduation assemblies.

There have been many changes at Serra over these four years but even greater changes in the graduates of the Class of '63. They have done well here; we'll miss them, but we have high hopes for their future.

Farewell Assembly

Jim Steinfeld receiving his award for the "Boy of the Year".

Denny Hanel prophesying what the Seniors will be doing in years to come.

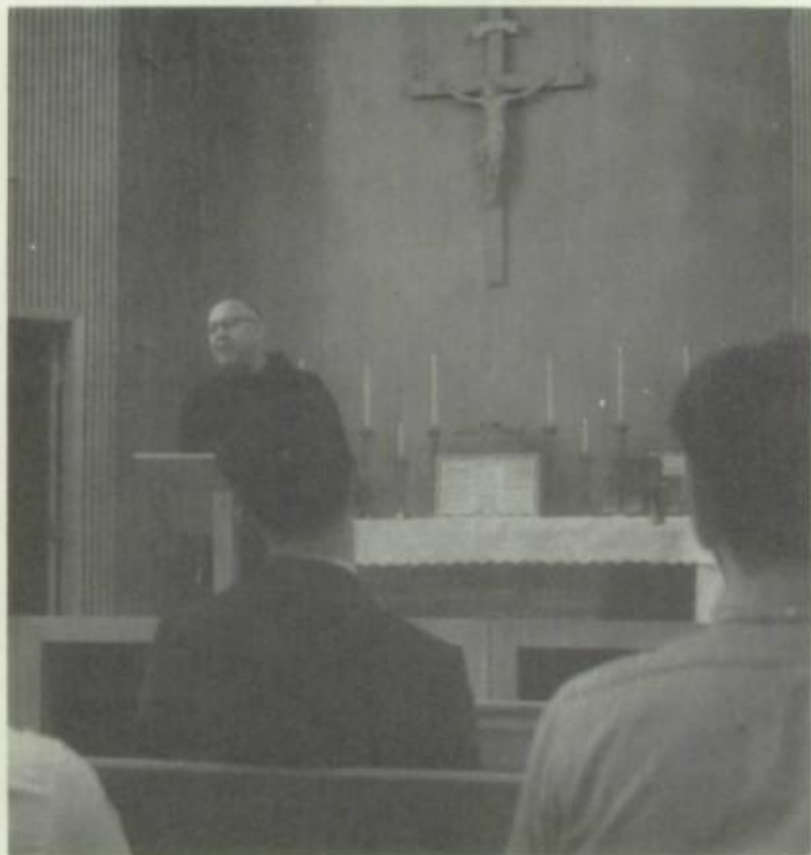

This year, a new tradition was initiated by the Class of '63. Just before taking their final step, departing from high school, the Seniors presented a farewell assembly, an event reminiscent of the past, yet still anticipating the future. The Student Body Officers publically relinquished their offices. The Class Will and Prophecy were read, and the Boy and Girl of the year were announced, and a gift was presented to the school.

Senior Cheerleaders leading their favorite yells for the last time.

Senior Day Of Recollection

Father Gratian addresses the Senior boys on their day of retreat at Our Lady of Peace Retreat House in Beaverton.

Senior girls meditating before one of the numerous shrines in the quiet of the woods surrounding the retreat home at Beaverton.

A little quiet meditation just before lunch as the Senior girls contemplate the lectures they have heard during the morning.

The boys do some quiet reading in the peace of the lounge while awaiting their next conference.

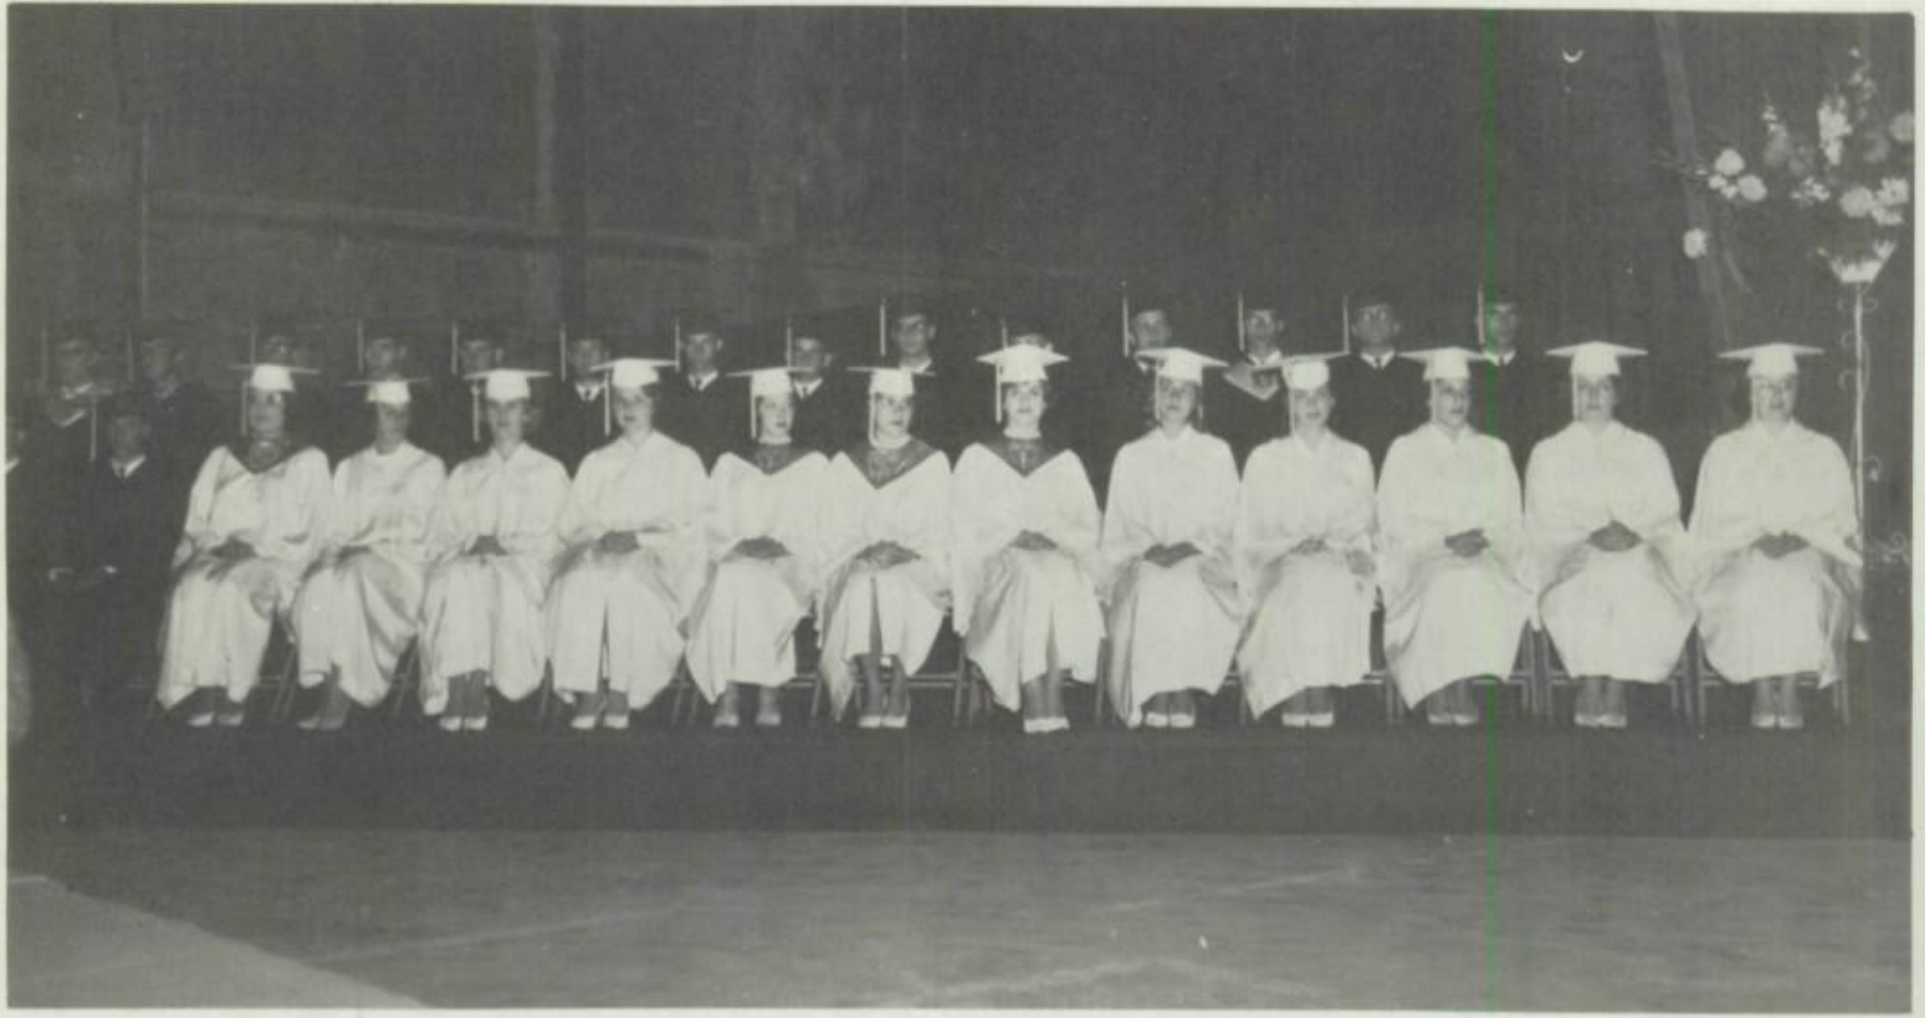

Bob Nordyke and Father John enjoy the bonfire on the beach as they observe Janie Williams' hair blowing in the ocean breeze.

Senior Skip Day

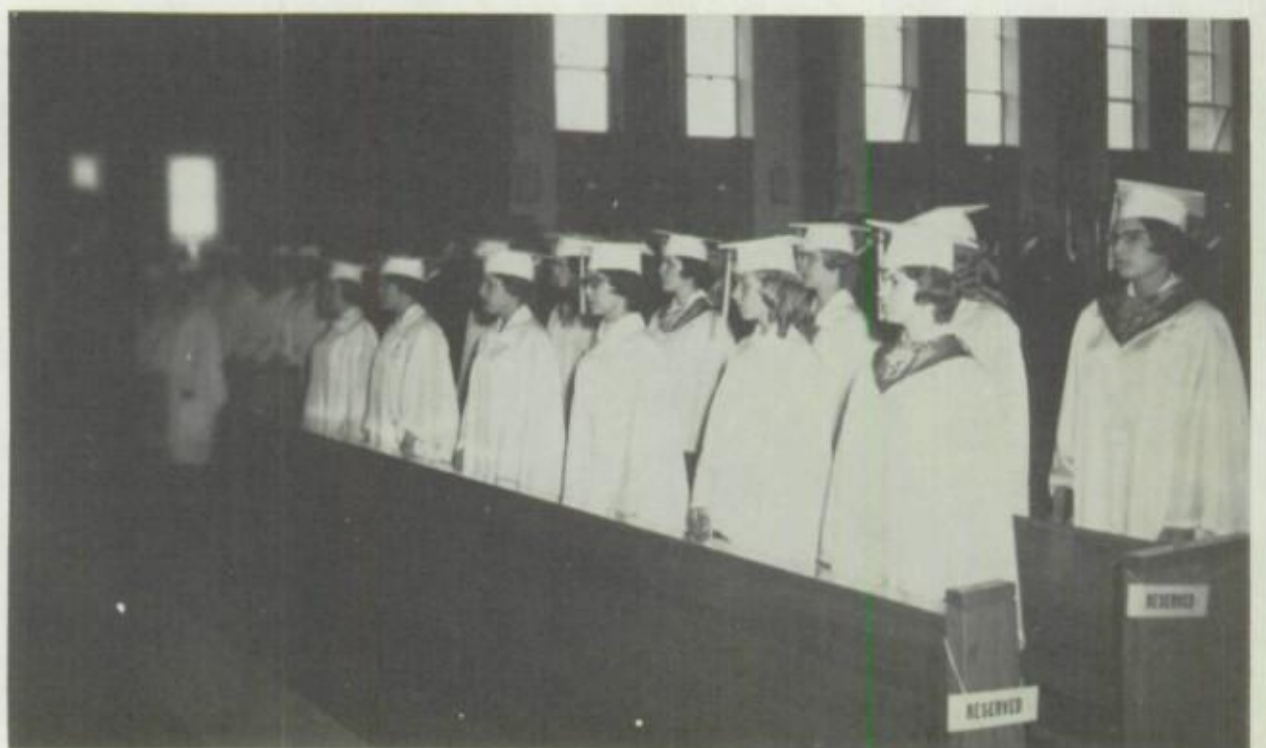

Tony DeSantis makes a grab for the ball as the senior boys get together for a rousing game of beach football.

ORGANIZATI-HOZU

Mike Yeager thoughtfully chews a pencil as Secretary Mary Ann Zielinski, Activities Manager Dave Desmarteau, and Treasurer Denny Gorman do their part in conducting an efficient meeting.

Voting and non-voting members of Student Council combine their strength to provide the best possible student government.

Key Club

Chuck Hottinger runs the projector as Bob Nordyke explains exactly what went on at the convention in Spokane, Washington attended by several Serra Key Club members. Dave Schreiner and Jim Steinfeld stand by ready to help in case of an emergency.

Members of the Key Club attend an informal meeting to discuss some official business.

Annual Staff

Father Vincent looks over a new batch of pictures with Serran photographer Paul Roth and staff members Bob Pendleton and Burt Breedlove.

Serran editor Mary Ann Zielinski during a more enjoyable planning session....before the problems pile up....with staff members Paul Roth, Tom McCarty, Lee Joyce, Ann Zimmerman and Janie Williams. Often working all Saturday on layouts and copy calls for a Sprite or two to survive.

One of the many trees felled on the University of Oregon campus by the Columbus Day storm.

Tom McCarty, Lee Joyce, and Bob Pendleton, delegates at the Eugene Press Workshop held on the campus of the University of Oregon, survey the destruction of the October 12th storm from a safe distance.

A cluttered desk testifies to the fact that getting out an annual calls for a lot of hard work as Mary Ann Zielinski, Jani Williams, and Lee Joyce put in some Saturday time.

Paper Staff

Linda Gibbons, the Serrano's very competent 1962-63 editor, inspects the work of assistants, Cheryl Waser and Marilyn Lange.

Exchange editors, Nancy Mangers and Kathy Moorman, busy addressing papers for mailing.

Sue Nelson and Kris Jarvis, business managers of the El Serrano, pausing after a long period of steady concentration.

Sister Bonaventure admiring the new Polaroid camera purchased for the Paper Staff.

Serra's representatives at Seattle workshop working on their articles for "Student Prints."

Rosemarie Kleinschmit and Linda Gibbons busy typing material for the next edition of the "El Serrano".

Honor Society

Sister Francis Xavier speaks at the first honor society induction of the year, held in the fall.

Newly inducted members of the National Honor Society are Linda Esser, Denny Gorman, Rosalyn Hemmer, Lucy Jette and Dale Lucas. Students must maintain a 3.00 average to qualify for this honor.

Honor Society members listen "intently" as president Dave Schreiner conducts a meeting.

Mary Stuckart calls the names of the students to be inducted into the National Honor Society as John Wilson lights the candle representing character.

Miss Beryl Holt gives the address at the spring induction of the Honor Society.

Dave Bachmeier pledges to uphold the ideals of the Honor Society as Bob Nordyke prepares to give him his certificate.

Third Order Herald Activities

The "Heralds" have been an accepted extension of Serra's educational program since 1959. This junior section of the Third Order of St. Francis provides the junior and senior student with an opportunity for intensive spiritual growth. Membership is entirely voluntary. Meetings are held twice a month. Emphasis is given to supernatural growth following the ideals of St. Francis. Activities stressed are those in which the student normally participates. Additional apostolates, such as the two illustrated on these pages, and a winter census of the Spanish-speaking migrants in the valley, are extra-curricular. However others, such as opportunity for daily Communion and First Friday Dialog Mass, have been initiated and sustained by the Heralds themselves, within the curriculum.

The Las Posadas celebration begins at Woodburn with a procession into Church, followed by the blessing of the figures of the Nativity, Mass, and a fiesta with Pinatas in the hall afterwards.

Some of the Heralds, Peggy Gehlen, Nancy Lovelace, Jan Moretti, Marcia Watkins, and Mary Schachtsick, enjoying an afternoon of packaging and wrapping gifts, distributed at both presentations of Las Posadas.

A wild scramble for the candy, nuts, and toys results as one of the Pinatas, symbolizing the devil, is broken. This scene is on the stage at Serra. Youngsters seen are the children of wintering migrant families.

Two scenes from
"CHRIST IN THE CONCRETE CITY," a modern religious drama presented by the Heralds during Lent. The seven well received performances included
those at Fairview,
Trinity Methodist
Church, and St.
Francis Seminary,
as well as at parishes
in Salem and Portland.

In addition to the cast,
(from left, top picture)
Dorothy Lewis, Mike
Yeager, Marcia Watkins,
Chuck Hottinger, John
Cramer, and Jim Steinfield (not shown), direction was by Fr. Vincent,
O. F. M. (Herald Spiritual Director), Mrs. James
Hanns assisting, lighting
by Gene Picha, Dan Lies assisting, and prompting by Carol Heineck.

Pep Club

Thanks from the entire student body to varsity cheerleaders Cheryl Waser, Marilyn Lange and Gay Masser for a great job well done.

J. V. cheerleaders Nancie Gunn, Nanci Gallagher and Sue Nelson also deserve thanks and recognition for their part in helping the J. V. team on to such an impressive record.

Anxiously waiting their turn (and sizing up their competition) are candidates for next year's cheerleaders.

Rose Marie Kleinschmit leads the student body in her cheer as she makes her bid for varsity cheerleader.

The student body, judges of the cheerleader candidates, wait for the next try-out— something in the manner of the lions and the Christians.

Glee Club

The Serra Glee Club before one of their many successful performances.

Serra's Glee Club put out a tremendous effort during the 1962-63 school year to provide entertainment for the public and for the Student Body of Serra. The members of the Glee Club relinquished three home-room periods a week to prepare for their performances. They performed for the two Honor Society inductions, both of the plays presented by the Drama Class, and for the Senior commencement.

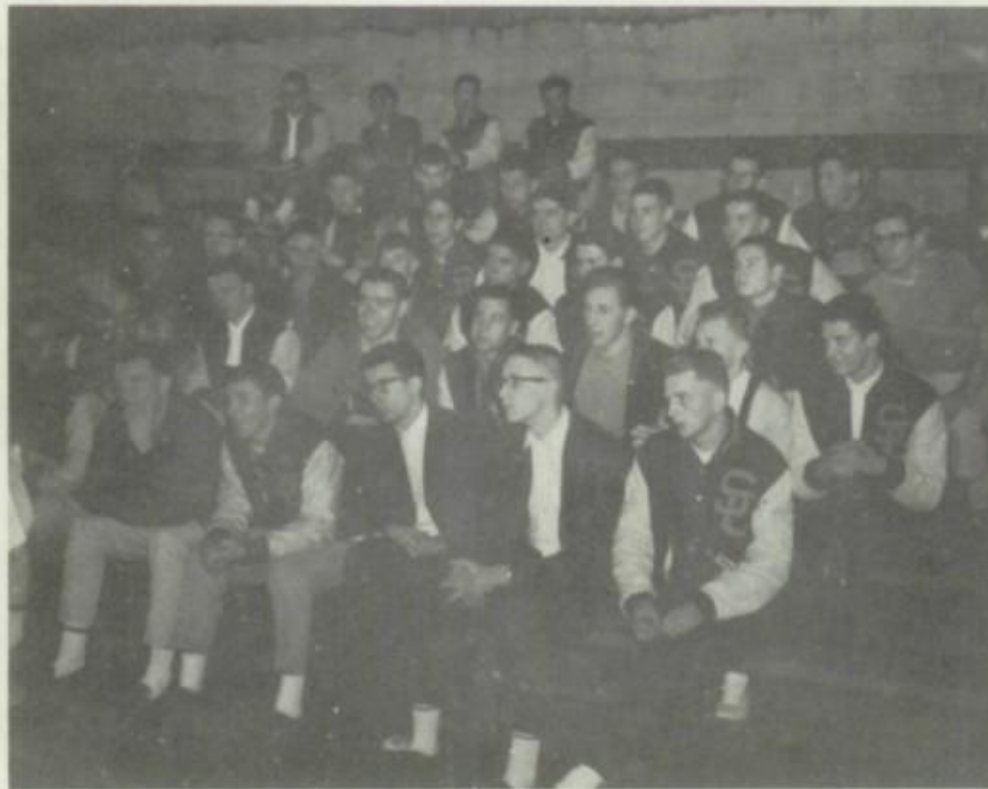

In the Capital Conference Music Festival, held in Serra's gym, Serra's Glee Club was very well represented and walked away with high honors. The Glee Club was prodded and led by Fr. Samuel, who never lost his hopes of improvement. The Glee Club had many enjoyable moments before performances, and many dispairing moments after performances; but they came through the entire year and are determined to do even better next year.

Fr. Samuel tensely directing the Glee Club while Chuck Hottinger waits for his cue.

A new addition to the extended Serra High curriculum this year has been Fr. Samuel's Drama classes on Thursday evenings. Credit is given for this profitable class, open to all interested in dramatics, and required for all intended performers. The results of this class were evident in the high caliber of the two fine performances given before Christmas and after Easter. The proceeds of these two plays enabled the administration to resume construction on the unfinished gymnasium. At present, due to the energetic response of the students in their ticket sales, work on the multi-purpose balcony is moving ahead for the fall semester. Above is a photo of Jane Frost, the young star of Serra's spring production, "Time Out for Ginger."

Letterman Club

Mr. Giebar addresses a few remarks to the Letterman Club in his usual informal manner.

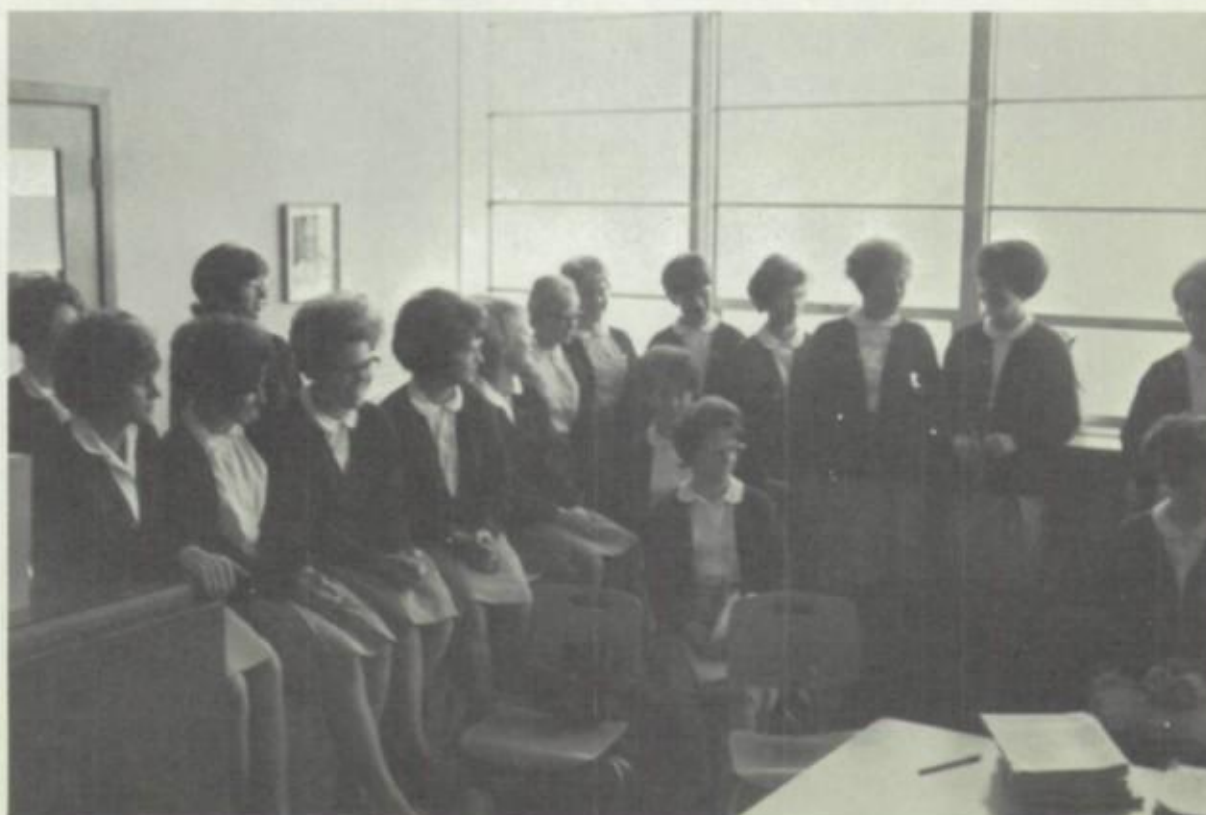

Tony DeSantis pockets his cut of the money from the apple sale conducted by the Letterman Club during home games.

Library Club

Lee Joyce, Milly Gibbons, Patty Yeager, and Kris Jarvis busy keeping the magazine rack up to date.

The Library Club, organized under the auspices of Sister Bonaventure, consisted of 13 members this year. The Library Club is a very exclusive organization, requiring tremendous dedication and much hard work. Members are responsible for dusting, keeping the books in order, straightening the shelves and generally keeping the library in good running order. Officers of this year's organization were Nancy Mangers, president; Milly Gibbons, vice-president, and Lou Ann Doerfler, secretary-treasurer.

Ski Club

Jeff Berns bites the "dust" after taking his first (and last) tobogganing lesson.

A familiar sight to the members of the Serra ski club is majestic Mt. Hood.

Master-skier Chuck Hottinger demands his skis in his eagerness to make the first run of the day down the snowy slopes at Timberline.

THE JEFFERSON

Homecoming

This year's Homecoming saw an all-Serra court grace the newly constructed stage in the Serra gym for the first time. Queen Kathy was the second senior to reign in the home gym. She and the entire court have helped to form a lasting tradition for future Serra royalty.

Plastic rain hats are in abundance as the newly organized Serra pep club starts the season at the Homecoming game against Central.

Smiling shyly, Robin Henkel carries roses to reigning Queen Kathy.

Initiation

A head-on collision between headless freshmen Ed Burrell and Mat Lock.

Jimmy Kaye Brewer being put through her paces by seniors Pam Prinz and Bob Zielinski.

Mighty Steve Schreiner exercising his power over Dan Goffin who apparently doesn't care much.

Mary Peters shows her style in the Limbo as members of the Senior and Freshman classes take note.

Fashion model Kathy Gibbons showing the "latest" style.

This year's Freshman initiation was considered a great success by both the Senior and Freshman classes. The Frosh were required to perform feats ranging from pushing pennies across the floor to running backwards around the gym. They were also asked to dance everything from the Limbo to London Bridge. Even the most harried Freshman had to admit it was a lot of fun and a swell way to get to know the Seniors.

What could Claudia Salstrom be whispering in Craig Miller's attentive ear?

Larry Woodruff raises his eyes to heaven and asks, "When will it end?" as Denny Hanel sits calmly by.

Does Dennis Berry really need four freshmen to get those shoes clean?

Paul Roth examining some of Mark Gray's handiwork as Danny McMahon cheers him on.

Father Lester and Marc Earls arguing some of the finer points.

The Money Man

The talented cast of "The Money Man" assembled for a final bow.

Ginger (Jane Frost) raises a toast to her proposed success in football as her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll (Dorothy Lewis and Dave Desmarteau) look on in shocked disbelief.

Time Out For Ginger

One of Ginger's boy-friends, played by Denny Kailey, gives Mr. Carroll his opinion of the individual rights of every teen-ager.

Mr. Carroll "relives" his daughter's football triumph for the benefit of his amazed wife.

Christmas Assembly

The entire student body sings as George "Mitch" Nelson leads with vigah.

Gay Masser and George Nelson do the twist as Dan Lies makes a grab for the popcorn Margaret Vachter offers.

The Twilighters, Gay Masser, Pam Gordon, and Mary Ann Zielinski, sing as Margaret Vachter plays the accompaniment.

Day Of Recollection

Father Conan Lee, O.F.M., from Winlock, Washington, conducts one of the conferences held in the gym. Father gave five stimulating 25 minute talks. Benediction followed at the close of the day.

Father Lester offers the Sacrifice of the Mass before noon.

John VanDreische selects some spiritual reading material in keeping with the idea of the Day of Recollection, in the half-hour period following one of the conferences.

Jim Manion receives blessed ashes from Father Angelo on Ash Wednesday, Serra's annual Day of Recollection.

Student Activities

Officers of the Mission Club-Lorna Klampe, Lou Ann Doerfler, Lee Joyce, Paula Schreiner, and Sharon Gillespie, packing books to send to Father Kiernan.

Senior Assembly

Kathy MacMahon despisingly turns away from the bickerings of Dave Desmarteau. Bill Kruger and Pam Gordon don't seem to know what to make of it.

Cheryl Waser, as Constance Grey, helps Eleanor calm her disturbed patient.

Walter Brown has an uncontrollable urge to get away from it all.

Walter escapes from the clutches of his nurse's constant chatter as the stunned staff looks on.

Junior Assembly

Paul O'Brien doing his popular imitation of Bob Newhart at the police station.

WOW!

The final scene of the play concludes with Brandon inviting Joanna into the elevator for a long ride.

Mark Yeager caught doing his well-received imitation of Shelley Berman at the sophomore assembly.

Lorna Klampe looking very poised as she plays her accordion before the student body.

Sophomore Assembly

Members of the cast mourn as Johnny is carried from the stage, a victim of an over-emotional female.

J. V. cheerleaders Nancie Gunn, Nanci Gallagher and Sue Nelson do a western dance routine to the theme of "Let There be Drums."

Frosh Assembly

Sheriff Wayne Greenwood heads for cover at the approach of the villain, Billy the Kid.

Members of the class of freshman girls sing "Moon River" in front of scenery painted by their own classmates.

The freshmen, always a democratic class, allow everybody to participate in their assembly in what they call a "group scene."

Denny Hanel, Marilyn Lange, Marc Earls and Dorothy Lewis, senior members of May Day Court, pose before the shrine set up at the KC Hall, Diane Whitby's costume may take some of the older members of the faculty back to the days of their youth.

That isn't really an Oakie in the library. It's Denny Berry, and he doesn't always look that bad.

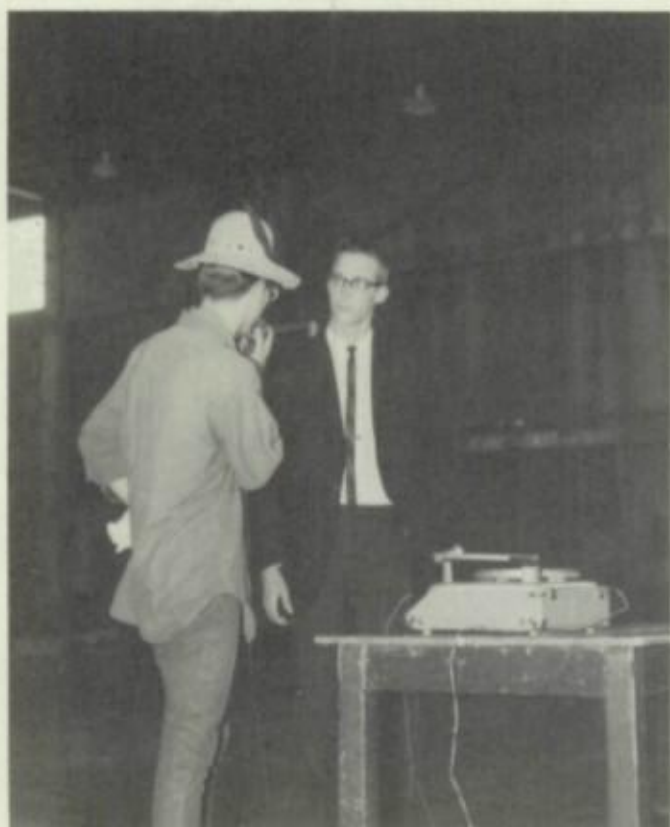

The singing seniors, Dan Lies, Denny Hanel, and George Nelson performing at the Cosmo Day dance, sponsored by the junior class, who obviously know real talent when they hear it.

Citizens of tomorrow, Phil Seely, Jim Templin and Bob Pendleton keep the music going with Bob Nordyke's assistance.

Serra's seniors assert their independence by staging a sit-down strike at the Cosmo Day dance held in the KC Hall.

Assembly Glimpses

Student Body President, John Wilson, playing Robin Hood as he turns one of the first school assemblies of the year over to Vice-President, Mike Yeager.

Serra's version of Central's cheerleaders stars Dave Desmarteau, Jim Beal, Gene Cavell, and Greg Johnson at an assembly before the important Central game.

Cheerleaders Marilyn Lang, Cheryl Waser, Carol Freres, and Gay Masser and yell kings Jim Steinfield, Denny Hanel, and George Nelson have been a familiar sight throughout the year to Serra students. Here we see them raising the roof as they build up school spirit for the evening's big game.

Coach Grosjacques publicly congratulates the award-winning basketball team and the student supporters at the Basketball Awards Assembly.

Father Samuel presents Marc Earls, Bill Krebs, Frank Lorenz, Gene Cavell and Doug Doerfler with letterman certificates at the same assembly.

Student Body Mass is a familiar First Friday function at Serra. Father Lester offers the Mass as Third Order Prefect Chuck Hottinger leads the students in the dialog.

Campaigns

Election time at Serra is almost as hectic as the national presidential election. Campaign posters and slogans are varied and colorful and employ the talents of artists from all the classes. This year's student body election was exceptionally lively because of all the time and effort contributed by all concerned.

Denny Gorman and Phil Seeley vie for the office of student body president with Denny emerging victorious.

Jim Templin defeated Tom McCarty to win the vice-presidency.

Mike Kaempf nearly dwarfed by posters supporting him in his campaign for activities manager.

Newly elected Student Body Officers for 1964 include Frank Chamberlain, Activities Manager; Jim Templin, Vice President; Denny Gorman, President; Nancy Lovelace, Secretary; and Mark Yeager, Treasurer.

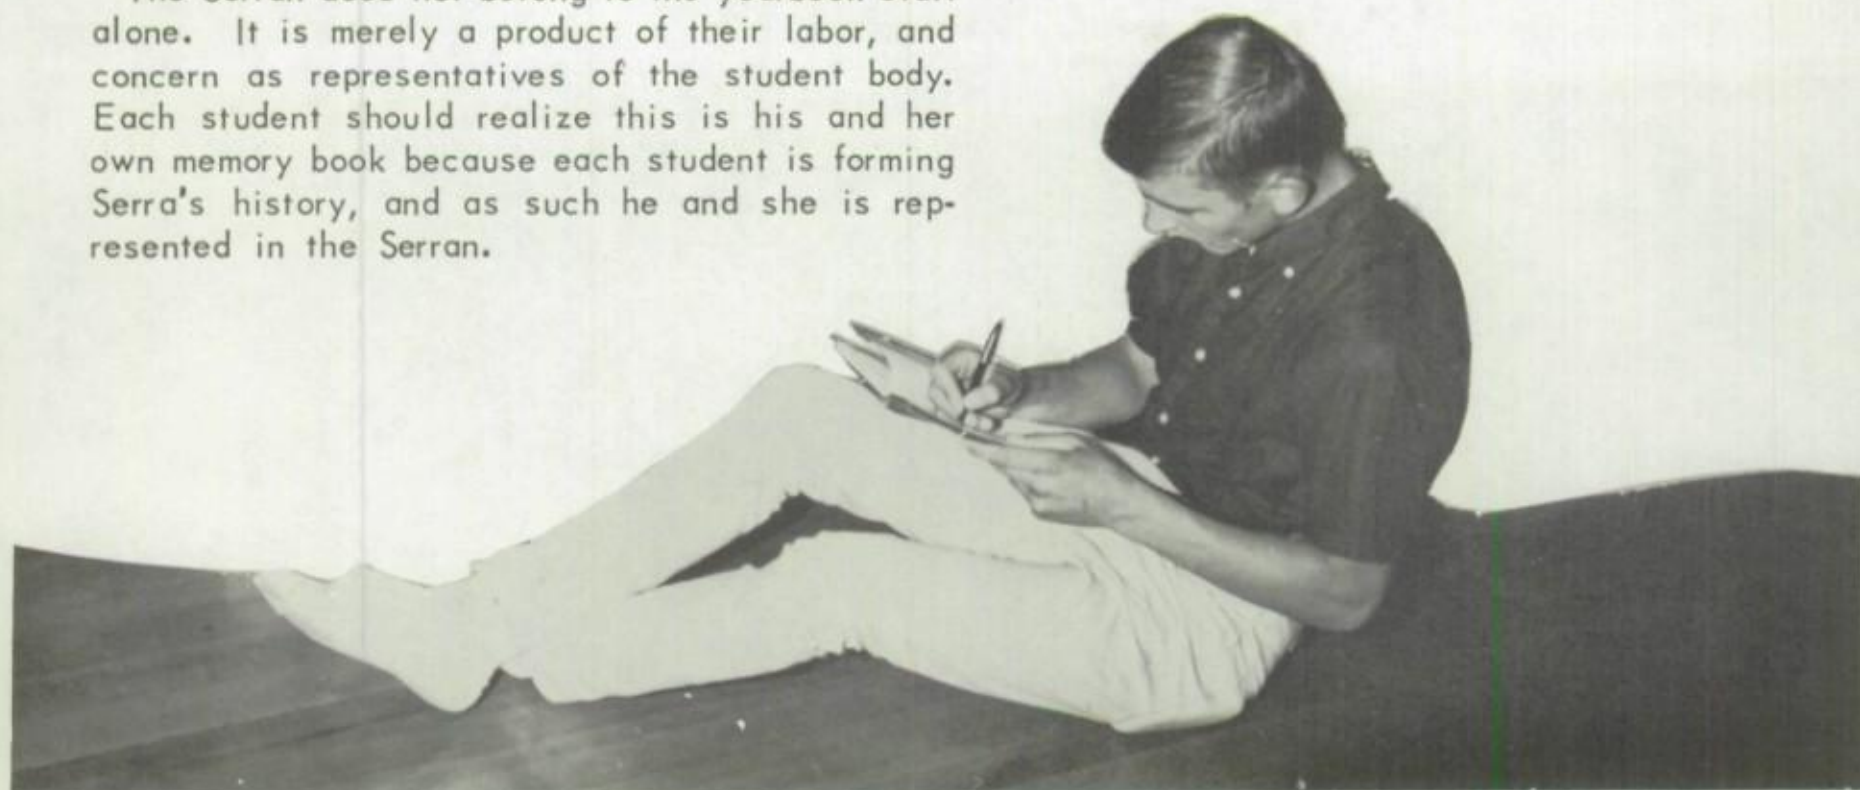

Annual Dance

For the first time last year the annual came out in the fall and because it was so successful, the staff of '63 is continuing this policy.

The Serran does not belong to the yearbook staff alone. It is merely a product of their labor, and concern as representatives of the student body. Each student should realize this is his and her own memory book because each student is forming Serra's history, and as such he and she is represented in the Serran.

Paul Ferder in his favorite position as he signs the new edition of the Serran.

Dancing lessons

For a period of 5 weeks, two dancing instructors, Mr. and Mrs. Cole, diligently tried to teach the art of dancing to Serra students. Classes were held twice a week during home room periods. We wish to express appreciation for this wonderful opportunity; and smiling faces and sore toes will testify to the cooperation and enjoyment shared by all.

Mr. Cole, one of the dancing instructors, changes the swinging pace to a slow, smooth fox trot.

Dances

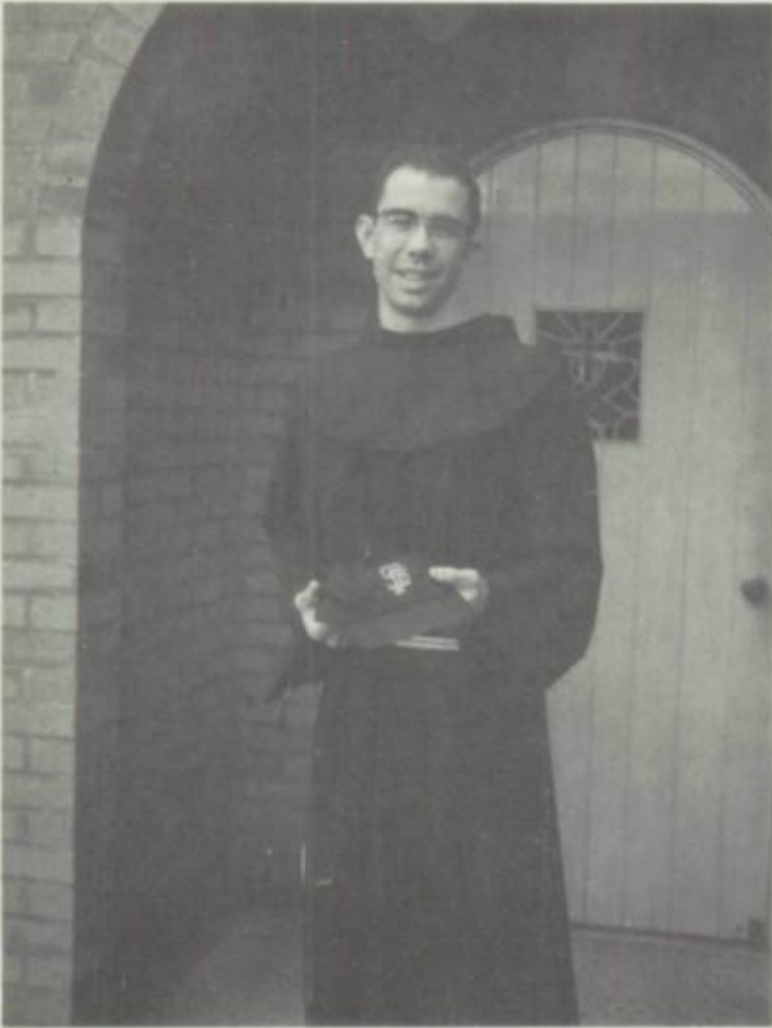

The freshmen started the year out with a bang by sponsoring the Freshmen party in Serra's gym. Dressed in the latest styles, class members enjoy an evening of fun.

The Freshmen and Sophomores mash around the K. C. hall during the Freshmen-Sophomore party given for them.

Farewell

Serra hates to bid farewell to one of its "old-timers", Father Foster. Although moving on to a new field of work, Father Foster has left a lasting impression on Serra. Students will long remember this lanky padre, Serra's loudest rooter, and San Francisco's No. 1 Giant fan.

Father Angelo, leaving Serra after three years of teaching, is returning to parish work. Doing an excellent job at his often thankless and unrewarding position as disciplinarian, he will be fondly remembered by that large number of Serra students who have paid gum fines or appeared for Father's Saturday morning get-together.

A football team's season record is not always a true picture of its effort and spirit. This year the Sabers had a sense of spirit and determination that carried them through the season without ever wanting to quit. Their effort could be seen plainly by anyone who watched them play. In looking forward to next season, we can expect to accomplish even greater things than in past years. Winning will be a difficult task, but the Sabers have the stamina and courage it takes to do it.

Cheer Leaders

Serra is fortunate in having a strong tradition of cheerleaders and cheer-kings. They perform the difficult task of supporting the team by urging on the active participation of the entire student body. They represent the keen interest that every student has in the Sabers and the fine school spirit that is growing each year.

The Baseball Team had a very successful 1962 season, losing only two league games. The Sabers won the Southern Division of the Capital Conference with a 4-0 victory over Stayton. In the Capital Conference play-off games, the Sabers were defeated by Woodburn 3-2 and 5-2. There were no graduating seniors on the team this year so everyone is looking forward to an even more successful "next year".

Smothering all but a few of their rivals, the Saber track team capped a very successful 1962 season with a first place at the District Track Meet for the fourth year in a row. Besides winning every dual meet, the Saber cindermen won the Canby Invitational Meet for the third consecutive year. They placed 2nd at the Central Relays and rolled over 5 other teams in a six-way meet at Cascade to place 1st. Many of the school and District records fell this year and as a result a portion of the team attended the State Track Meet at Corvallis.

Tennis

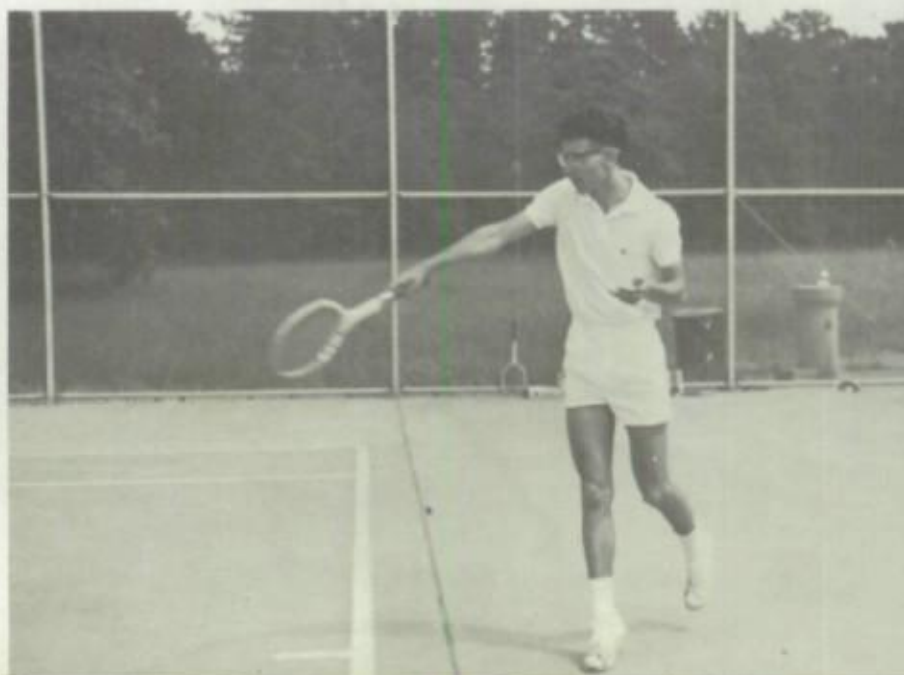

In Serra's second full season of tennis competition, the tennis team came out with a 4-8 record. All its loses were to A-1 schools. CONCRETE-TECH

Juniors

The Junior class holds out great promise for the coming year. These future seniors have done much in the past year to prepare themselves for taking their position as Serra's leaders.

The Juniors were well represented in all school activities. The two school plays relied heavily on some fine Junior talent; the glee club utilized a representative number of Juniors. Junior members of all Serra's varsity teams will account for 40 of next year's senior lettermen. In their excellent sponsoring of the Junior-Senior Prom, "Paris by Moonlight," they demonstrated a fine spirit of achievement. With them, Serra looks forward to a bright year.

The Junior Class officers for the 1962-63 school year were Greg Brooks serving as treasurer; Jane Frost, secretary; Phil Seeley, vice-president; and Bob Pendleton, president.

The sophomores have continued to develop the fine precedents established by them in their freshman year. Laden with talent and ability, this class has done well with every project undertaken. Boasting not only fine athletes but also fine scholars, they promise leaders in all fields.

Masters of timing, the sophomores arrived at Serra just as the gym had been made usable and they see its facilities improve daily; before they graduate they will be using Serra's new wing, which is as yet on the drawing board. Thus they embody the ideals of Serra--growth and progress. Pace-setters, they will be worth watching.

Freshmen

The 1962-63 freshman class was the largest in Serra's history. One hundred and twenty-six strong they entered in September determined to become a vital part of Serra. In the realm of athletics, it was a banner year for the freshmen: undefeated in football, Conference champions in basketball, with some freshmen making the varsity squads in basketball and baseball. Their first real team effort, a class talent assembly presented in March, was a highlight for the school and for the class, marked by talent, humor, and downright corn. Solid school spirit and class cooperation were amply demonstrated in their strong support of the school candy drive and the ticket sales for the two school plays. With a year of excellent background behind them, they can look forward to an outstanding future at Serra.

Faculty and Students,

It is always difficult to say goodbye. Four years of close acquaintance cannot be dropped as the cap and gown can be dropped a moment after graduation. For four years now, we Seniors have been a part of Serra, and Serra has been a part of us. The classrooms, the initialed desks, the blackboard that was never cleaned, the ever-changing face of our gym under construction—these things we can leave, but never forget.

But more important than this, we find that there is a catch in our throat and a tug at our heart when we try to say goodbye to you, the Faculty and Student Body of Serra; for all of us together have been that glorious thing called Serra. When we leave, we will leave a part of us here; we will leave a part of us with you. The ups and downs were there, the run-ins and cross purposes. But there is also the warmth of deep friendship, the flame of school loyalty, the unforgettable bond of shared happiness and even of shared sorrow. And so we say goodbye, proudly praying that you and Serra may always go on, confident that you and Serra will go with us. Not goodbye, but "Vaya con Dios."
